Of the 713,883 signatures gathered, Elections B.C. determined that 557,383 were valid and the threshold had been achieved.

This will be the first initiative vote to be conducted since the Act came into force in 1995.

November 10, 2010 - Acting Chief Electoral Officer Craig James delivered the proposed initiative vote question to then Attorney General Michael de Jong.

NOTE: up until this point, everything has been done under the Citizens Recall and Initiative Act. The next steps have occurred under the Referendum Act.

April 27, 2011 - the BC Government introduced the Harmonized Sales Tax (HST) Initiative Vote and Referendum Act to the legislature so that the vote under the Citizens Recall and Initiative Act in September will not have to be held on September 24, 2011, in light of the pending Referendum Act vote in June/July.

July 22, 2011 - 4:30 p.m. (local time) – Completed ballots must be received by mail by Elections BC or in person by a Service BC centre.

September 24, 2011 - this was the date British Columbians were to vote on the initiative (i.e., there will be a second vote) in accordance with the Citizens Recall and Initiative Act. Assuming the Harmonized Sales Tax (HST) Initiative Vote and Referendum Act receives Royal Assent, this vote will not happen.
