

Peer Edit Review: "Identities" Paragraph

- 1) Does the paragraph you're reading have its own title?
- 2) Does your paragraph have a hook?
- 3) Does your paragraph introduce the title and author of the short story it is about?
- 4) Does your paragraph have a topic sentence? Is this a good topic sentence that gives a clear direction of what is to be proven?
- 5) Does your paragraph have supporting details? Are these supporting details accurate and support the topic sentence?
- 6) Does your paragraph have quotes? Are the quotes integrated correctly? If not, what does your partner need to do?
- 7) Does your paragraph use transitional expressions? Are they the best word choices or could they be stronger?
- 8) Does your paragraph have a variety of sentence types? Could they switch up some of their sentences –start with a subordinate clause for example?
- 9) Does your paragraph have a closing sentence? *Please don't end with "in summary or In conclusion"
- 10) Are they using active voice?