- Co-chairs and executive roles are explained.
- Executives introduce themselves.
- Reply to this email if you have any questions.
- Board meetings are open to students, reply to this email for more information.

Icebreaker

- SLC members participated in a game of "Heads up."

Personalized Learning Presentation

- Julian and Aaron presented a PowerPoint

- How students are integrated into the learning process giving them more choice, opportunity and options
- Right Side – Students have little say and participate less in their education
- Left side – Students can shape learning to their needs making them more engaged and participating fully
- Personalized learning gives the opportunity for you to include your interests and passions into other topics. Example: If you have a passion for art you could look at history through art and learn through something that makes sense to you.

Middle School Representative

- Students interested should reply with an application.
- Middle schoolers will be separated from the high schools so they can vote.
- Question from Mr. Cioffi: A few students aren't here, can the exec make a summary of middle school reps so the students not present can discuss.

Questions

- Tuesday October 6th at 5:30 is the next board meeting. Please reply to this email for more information.
- Reply to this email for any questions relating to board meetings.
